Considered two insurance quotes and agree to pay the one LW advises in light of his experience in the insurance market.
To consider a request for a donation from Silsden Football and Cricket club agreed to make a donation of 500 pounds as a starter for their funding raising. Further funding may be considered subject to the Town Council seeing written commitment to financing that will allow the scheme to go ahead.

16. PLANNING.

07/02755 13 Brindley Road ff extension over garage – No Objections
07/02570 9 Beech Grove rear extension and detached garage – All materials to match existing area and would query whether there would be an issue of overlooking and overbearing.
07/03070 5 Hayhills Road Demo of property and replace with terrace of 3 three storey Town Houses. – Objection there should be a separate application for demolition. Application not in keeping with surrounding area especially in light of the listed building adjacent to this site. Would suggest a 2 storey development may be more in keeping.
07/03141 25 Daisy Hill ss extension to rear and porch to front – All materials to be in keeping
07/02904 Plot 8, Silsden Business Park, Belton Road Construction of 10 starter business units – Approval in principal subject to the following conditions:-

• Full Construction plan as part of the conditions including working hours 7.30-6.30 weekdays and Saturday mornings only. Site for storage of all materials. Access. Skips to be covered. Road cleaning or wheel washing.
• Roof to be green to match existing in area
• Guttering to be in keeping with the roof
• Weather boarding to be green and in keeping
• Bin stores to be green in colour
• parking spaces to have permeable surfaces
• Developer to ½ towards the metro card scheme
• Confirm bin store adequate for the site
• Consider whether wise to have bin stores made of combustible material
• Total assurance that a protective fence will be erected around the Hainsworth Hedge during construction.
• Ensure there is disabled access to the units.

17. Verbal reports noted as follows:
